Virginia Regional Ballet's handbook clearly states: Code of Conduct

Every dancer and parent will need to be respectful of all students, instructors, and staff members. We will not tolerate any physical or verbal abuse, including "name calling" or "bullying" by any student. If a student and/or parent disrupts the safety of other students in the class they will be asked to leave without refund. All students and parents must show respect to the property of others. Any intentional damage to or theft of such property or class equipment will not be tolerated and could result in dismissal from the academy. All VRBA instructors will make sure the classroom is a safe environment by upholding these rules and regulations. If a student does not abide by these rules they may be asked to discontinue dance classes until they can use appropriate behavior. At any time, we reserve the right to refuse service based on the above mentioned.

We request that you contact all faculty through the methods listed on our website: email – dance@dancevrb.com or phone – (757) 229-2553, leave a message if no answer, or a personal note addressed to the recipient, left in the office mailbox. Please use these methods for the purposes of reporting absences, class changes, scheduling private lessons with instructors, meeting request with faculty or staff to discuss classes or productions or to make dance attire appointments. Communications should not be made via personal devices of faculty or staff; to ensure their privacy and respect of their personal time.

Virginia Regional Ballet's Handbook is currently made easily accessible to all parents and dancers. While the Code of Conduct explicitly states Virginia Regional Ballet's policy on "bullying" and highlights the methods of reporting, there is room for some revisions. The Board will guarantee to add a more detailed statement regarding reporting instances of "bullying" and abuse – of any kind and response time from the production. The Handbook is located on the Virginia Regional Ballet website, and copies are also easily accessible at the Yorktown and Williamsburg studio locations.
